Allah's Beautiful Names

Al-Ahad:
The Only One

الْأَحَدُ

The 'Only One' is more powerful in negating polytheism than 'the One'. It is like the difference between 'one' and 'anyone'. If it is said, for example, "there is not one in the house", this could mean there are two or three. But if it is said "there is not anyone in the house", this means that none whatsoever is in the house.

Allah's Beautiful Names

Al-'Alee - Al-A'la
Al-Muta'al
The High - The Most High
- The Exalted

العلي - الاعلى - العلى

He is the High One in His status, power and Self, and the Exalted One before Whom all else stand in humiliation. Nothing is above

Allah's Beautiful Names

Al-Akram:
The Most Generou

الْأَكْرَمُ

The Most Generous: Refers to Allah being better in generosity than every generous one. He has no equal in this. Indeed, all good lies in His hands and comes from Him.

Allah's Beautiful Names

Al-Bāri'
The Initiator

الْبَارِي

He is the One Who brought the creatures He willed into existence.

Allah's Beautiful Names

Al-Awwal
The First

He is the One before Whom there was nothing. All creatures came into existence by His creation. As for Him, there is no beginning for His existence.

Allah's Beautiful Names

Al-Wadood The Most Affectionate

He is the Loving One Who loves His pious servants and shows affection to them through forgiveness and giving - and they love Him. When Allah Almighty loves someone, He answers his invocations, protects him from what he fears, and makes him well accepted by people. And when a person loves Allah Almighty, he obeys Him and longs to meet Him.
